

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE: FROM NOMADIC EMPIRES TO NEOLIBERAL CONQUESTS

Thursday, November 17	Reception at the Museum für Völkerkunde Rothenbaumchaussee 64, Hamburg
16.00–17.00 Foyer	Registration
17.30–18.30 Großer Hörsaal	Welcome (RECTOR OF THE UNIVERSITY OF LEIPZIG PROF. DR. BEATE SCHÜCKING, JÖRG GERTEL & JÜRGEN PAUL) Opening of the International Conference: From Nomadic Empires to Neoliberal Conquests: Keynotes STEFAN CONERMANN (Bonn) HERMANN KREUTZMANN (Berlin)
18.30–18.50	Book launch
19.00 Foyer	Opening of the Exhibition: Brisante Begegnungen /Encounters of Significance PROF. BARBARA KISSELER (Kultursenatorin Hamburg) PROF. DR. WULF KÖPKE (Direktor des Museums für Völkerkunde Hamburg) PROF. DR. JÖRG GERTEL (Sprecher der SFB 586) PROF. DR. BEATE SCHÜCKING (Rektorin der Universität Leipzig) PROF. DR. BIRGIT DRÄGER (Prorektorin der Martin-Luther-Universität Halle-Wittenberg) PROF. DR. PETER FUNKE/Dr. HANS-DIETER BIENERT (Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft) PROF. DR. ANNEGRET NIPPA (Projektleiterin der Ausstellung, SFB 586)
Friday, November 18	(A) Nomad Aristocrats in a World of Empires Museum für Völkerkunde, Großer Hörsaal, Rothenbaumchaussee 64, Hamburg
until 9.00	Registration
9.00	Welcome and Keynote (JÜRGEN PAUL, Halle)
Session A1: Archaeology and Ancient History
Chair: NN
9.45	JAN BEMMANN (Bonn): Cities in the Steppes – Archaeological Research in the Orkhon Valley, Mongolia.
10.30	NICOLA DI COSMO (Princeton): The Xiongnu Ruling Elite: Questions and Evidence from the Historical and Archeological Contexts.
11.15–11.45 Coffee Break
11.45	SÖREN STARK (New York): Art at the Ordu: Accumulation and Redistribution of Prestige Goods at the Turkic Residences (6-8th cent. CE).
12.30	STEFAN HAUSER (Konstanz): On kings, civic identity and tribal relations. Various ways of integration at Palmyra and Hatra.
13.15–14.30 Lunch
Session A 2: Medieval History
Chair: NN
14.30	DEBORAH TOR (Notre Dame): On the Edge of a Sword: the Seljuq rulers between Khān and Sultān.
15.15	ANDREW PEACOCK (St. Andrews): Nomadic elites, 'tribes' and the early Turkish 'states' of Anatolia.
16.00–16.30 Coffee Break
16.30	DAVID SNEATH (Cambridge): Multicentric Power and Aristocratic Order: Examining Chinggisid and Oirad Projects of Rulership.
17.15	BEATRICE MANZ (Tufts): Local Centers and Regional Politics in the Mongol and Timurid Period.
18.00	CHRISTINE NOELLE-KARIMI (Wien): Mobility and Limits of Mobility: Khurasan and Transoxiana in Early Modern Times.
20.00 Dinner

Saturday, November 19	(B) Appropriating Land, Inscribing Environments, Shifting Social Scapes Universitätsgelände, Philosophenturm, Hörsaal C, Von-Melle-Park 6, Hamburg
9.00	Welcome Address and Introduction (JÖRG GERTEL, Leipzig)
9.15–10.00	Session B1: Histories of Pastoral Enclosures (Short Presentations from the Collaborative Research Centre) KURT FRANZ (Halle): Enclosed Nomadism. JOHANN BÜSSOW (Halle): Sedentarisation in the Ottoman Empire. OTTO HABECK (Halle): Sedentarisation in the Soviet Union (Siberia) Chair: JÜRGEN PAUL
10.00–10.30 Coffee Break
10.30–12.00	Session B2: Dynamics of Pastoral Properties (Short Presentations from the Collaborative Research Centre) WOLFGANG HOLZWARTH (Halle): Rangeland Conflicts in Central Asia SANDRA CALKINS (Leipzig): Contested Pastures: Land Access and Survival in Sudan INGO BREUER, MOHAMMED MAHDI, HASSAN RACHIK, NAJIB AKESBI (Leipzig/Rabat): Morocco's Rangeland Resources in Globalizing Arenas of Conflict ANDREAS GRUSCHKE (Leipzig): Rangeland Conflicts Among Tibetan Pastoralists in China JUDITH MIGGELBRINK, NUCCIO MAZZULLO (Leipzig): Winter Pastures and Wood resources – Conflict of Interest in Forestry in Northern Finland Chair: JÖRG GERTEL
12.00–14.00 Lunch
14.00–17.30	After the lunch break, the two parts (A&B) of the conference follow their own program.
	(A) Nomadic Aristocrats in a World of Empires Kleiner Hörsaal, Museum für Völkerkunde	(B) Appropriating Land, Inscribing Environments, Shifting Social Scapes Universitätsgelände, Philosophenturm, Hörsaal C, Von-Melle-Park 6, Hamburg
14.00–15.30	Discussion: SFB 586 and its results in historical research on nomad-sedentary interaction. Paper to be circulated well in advance. Chair: STEFAN LEDER Discussant: ANATOLY KHAZANOV	Session B3: Appropriations – Land Grabs from Above and Below GUMA KUNDA KOMEY (Bahri University): War over Land – The Nuba Mountains in the New Sudans. SIMONE RETTBERG (Bayreuth/Addis): Land commodification within the Afar region of Ethiopia: intersections with political and ecological shifts MICHEL NORI (Bruxelles): Arid Juice: Interfacing Gender, Space and Markets in North-East Somalia. Chair: RICHARD ROTTENBURG
15.30-16.00 Coffee Break

16.00–17.30	Discussion to be continued	Session B4: Environmental Imprints – Between Conservation and Commodification ROY BEHNKE (ODESSA CENTER, UK): Property Rights and Access to Rangeland Resources. FRED ZAAL (KIT, Amsterdam): The Commoditisation of Inputs and Outputs, of Identities and Understandings in the World of Pastoralism. RICHARD LE HERON (Auckland University): Framing Pastoral Environments: Insights and initiatives from New Zealand. Chair: GÜNTHER SCHLEE
20.00 Dinner
Sunday, November 20	(A) Nomadic Aristocrats in a World of Empires Kleiner Hörsaal, Museum für Völkerkunde	(B) Appropriating Land, Inscribing Environments, Shifting Social Scapes Großer Hörsaal, Museum für Völkerkunde
9.00–10.30	Session A3: Around the Ottoman Empire Chair: NN NN SHAHIN MUSTAFAYEV (Baku): The Ottoman Alternative in the History of Aqqoyunlu Statehood: the Life and Death of Göde Ahmed Beg.	Session B5: Global Framing – “Indigeneity” in Competing Legal Arenas ANN BROWER (Lincoln University): The Cowboy, the Southern Man, and the Man from Snowy River: The symbolic politics of ownership in the US, NZ, and Australia". ANDIE PALMER (University of Alberta): Legal Obscurantism after the Marine Coastal Area/Takutai Moana Act (2011, NZ): Implications for Haida and Maori claims. Chair: JUDITH MIGGELBRINK
10.30–11.00 Coffee Break
11.00–12.00	Großer Hörsaal, Museum für Völkerkunde RUDI PAUL LINDNER (Ann Arbor): Settling the Ottomans in the 14th Century. STEFAN WINTER (Montréal): The al-Abbas Emirs of al-Rahbe and the Ottoman Çöl Beğlik, 1680-1781.	Kleiner Hörsaal, Museum für Völkerkunde Round Table: Social Shifts – From Local Livelihoods to Global Commons
12.30	Final Discussion
13.00–14.00 Lunch
14.00–16.00 Guided Tour Through the Exhibition		